20. Claims 20.1 All claims due to delay (including spoilage claims) or shortage must be notified to SMSA in writing within 48 hours after delivery of the Shipment, failing which the claimant shall be deemed to have waived its right to claim. 21. Surcharges SMSA reserves the right to assess fuel and other surcharges on Shipments without prior notice. 23. Mandatory Law These Conditions shall not exclude any liability where the exclusion of that liability is prohibited by applicable law. 24. Data Protection 24.2 By submitting any personal data to SMSA the Shipper consents to SMSA using and sharing this data with its subsidiaries and branches, and confirms that SMSA can do the same with its subsidiaries and branches. 25. Abandoned, Neglected and Returned Shipments 25.1 If a Shipment is undeliverable for any reason, SMSA will attempt to deliver it within 30 days. 25.2 The Sender will be liable for any or all costs, charges and fees incurred in returning, storing or disposing of the Shipment. 25.3 SMSA will not obtain or provide proof of delivery or delivery note after three (3) months from the date of the last attempt at delivery.
